[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Roanoke, Va., August 19.—Winning a double-header from the Colts with Ayers as one of the victims was quite an afternoon's entertainment for the nice crowd that went out to view the Tigers climb toward second place and perhaps first. It has been a long time since the Tigers have won a double-header, the last one being the one in which Bert Gardin won honors by shutting out Newport News in both games.

The first game opened with the Colts full of pep, as their old standby, Doctor Ayers was in the pit for the fast slipping Colts, and with such a hurler on the mound it was farthest from their minds that the ball game should be lost. Perryman pitched for the Tigers, and he hurled one grand game, allowing just two little hits, one a scratch, both in the fourth, after one man was out, and besides, he caused ten Colts to take healthy swings at his elusive offerings and then to the bench. The Parson never wavered from the start, and in adding his fine box work the Tigers put up a faultless game. Getting runs on Doctor Ayers is usually a hard thing to do, but the Tigers got three, all spread throughout the game, by bunching hits and taking advantage of the Colts' errors. Two of the runs were earned.

The first game was featured by Manager Pressly's hitting and the fine fielding of the Tigers, while the most prominent performer was Perryman, who pitched the game that couldn't lose. Two doubles and a pair of singles by Doctor Pressly was going some. Ayers' offerings being just to Buck's liking.

It didn't take long to finish the first game, and the second game was started about 3:30. Tolson was Manager Pressly's selection, while Strain started for the Colts. Tolson got in trouble right in the opener, when the Colts began to hit furiously, which compelled Buck to call Jay Edd to the Tigers' relief. One was gone, one run in, as a starter, Jay showed that he had brains when he caught Riley off second, and then he got the next batter, getting the Tigers out of a tight hole.

Manager Griffin sent Strain after Roanoke, but as Strain never has won

FIELD IS REDUCED IN TENNIS MATCH

Out of 148 Entrants, Only 35 Remain to Fight for Championship.

Newport News, Va., August 19.—Out of the field of 148 entrants for the all-tennis singles championship in the thirty-third annual tournament of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, there remain to-night but thirty-five contenders for the title. Under fairly favorable playing conditions the elimination process was both rapid and without sensational upsets. Among the survivors are N. W. Niles, Alfred S. Harding, W. M. Washburn, R. Norris S. Williams, second, William M. Johnston, S. H. Voshell, M. E. Loughlin, J. R. Strachan, T. C. Bundy, W. J. Cloutier, Dean Mathey, Robert LeRoy, Wallace F. Johnson and Richard Palmer. The ranking players came through true to form.

GOOBER VICTORY AIDED BY UMPIRE

Norfolk Fans Hold Indicator Handler Responsible for Defeat of Ryan's Tars.

Norfolk, Va., August 19.—Umpire Williams was responsible for Petersburg's victory to-day, at least that is the opinion of a majority of the fans who witnessed the game, and Helme Busch evidently is of the same opinion, because Helme smiled profusely when his umpire passed him to first in the eighth inning after he had been struck out by Jack Shenn.

There were two out and two on bases, Barnett hit safe, and one run scored. Norfolk outplayed the visitors in all but one inning to-day. They drove Richmond one of the box, and Hedgepeth, who relieved him, saved his badly off team by hitting a home run to warm up for the expected rally of the Tars in the ninth inning.

The locals secured four hits off Hedgepeth, and only the fastest kind of fielding saved him from defeat.

Because Manager Ryan kicked when he permitted Busch to take his ease in the third inning, after he had been struck out, Williams put the Tars' skipper out of the game. Ryan did not go to the bench fast enough to suit Williams, and he called for a policeman. The decision was apparently so unfair that none of the several policemen in the park responded to the umpire's call for assistance, and the crowd applauded. Ryan went to the bench and Stewart took his place behind the bat.

WRESTLING MATCH TO-MORROW NIGHT

Bout Between Turner and Albright Postponed Because of Weather Conditions.

The wrestling match between Joe Turner, the world's middleweight champion, and Con Albright, the Western "Wildcat," which was scheduled to come off at the baseball park last night, was postponed until to-morrow night, at 8:45 o'clock.

About 300 of the faithful sports journeyed out to the park, but were informed that the match was postponed until Thursday night, on account of the threatening and wet weather.

As soon as Turner found out that the bout was postponed he caught the next train back to Washington, where he has some very important business to attend to to-day.

Albright says he will continue his training with George Herbert at the ball park, so as not to get stale before to-morrow night.

A big crowd is expected to attend this match, and Promoters Morano and Herbert say that if both wrestlers live up to their reputations the best bout of the season should be the result.

Buffalo Buys Collins.

Boston, August 19.—Wilson Collins, a pitcher and outfielder, who has been with the Boston National League team several months, was sold outright to-day to the Buffalo club, of the International League. Collins formerly played on the baseball and football teams of Vanderbilt University.

PITTSBURGH DRIVES FROMME FROM BOX

Pirates Take Six-Run Lead, and Crandall Goes to Rescue.

BABE ADAMS PITCHES WELL

Cincinnati Defeats Boston in Double-Header—Brooklyn Loses to St. Louis.

New York, August 19.—It was an off day for the Giants to-day, the Pirates defeating the league leaders 8 to 3. The Pirates scored six runs in the first and second on seven hits, two of which were home runs by Carey. The Giants scored twice in the fifth on a single, a double and a sacrifice. Another run was made in the sixth on two singles and a double. Fromme was batted from the box in the second and Otis Crandall, who made his re-appearance with the Giants to-day, replaced him. Schupp succeeded Crandall in the eighth. Babe Adams, the one-time world's series hero, twirled for the Buccaneers and was well supported.
